

Today's Hot Bar Special Is:

Wait?! Why the blank line?

We have revamped our hot bar a little bit. When you stop into the store, you will notice that we now have a self-serve side and a kitchen-service side to the hot bar area. The hot bar still features many of your favorite daily specials and we've added options, too! We are in a transitional period for the moment and therefore do not have a planned/listed hot bar daily specials menu to offer you. Over the next couple of weeks, we will all adjust to this change and we will be able to reinstate the hot bar daily specials menu you're used to seeing. Until then, stop into the store to check it out -or- you can give us a call after 10:30am if you'd like to know what the day's specials are. Thank you for your patience during this time!
